

Fellowship Development Fund

The Fellowship Development Fund provides financial support of up to $500 USD to official WMI Fellowships. Only applications from existing WMI Fellowships will be considered for funding.

Before applying, please review the Fellowship Development Fund web page at <https://www.wellsmountaininitiative.org/fellowship-development-fund/> for full details, application requirements, and official templates.

Within this application, fellowships can apply for 1 or more funding categories. However, the total request from the Fellowship Development Fund can not exceed $500 USD. Be careful when creating budgets and totaling each partial funding percentage (if the group is applying for more than one funding category).

Funding categories:

Registration fee cost
 Transportation stipends to support student scholars
 Community events
 Fellowship income-generating projects
 Professional and/or fellowship development workshops

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis. If there are any questions or the fellowship would like budgets to be reviewed before submitting the official application, email nicole@wellsmountain.com.
