Coca-Cola Africa, a leading DBC sponsor, leading a workshop on "Winning Interview Strategies"

DBC 2018 was packed with amazing programs. I learned a lot from workshops on social enterprise, critical thinking, interview skills, writing personal statements, public speaking and applying for microgrants. It was a humbling experience to learn what other young leaders are doing around the world. Thank you WMI. - Melisa Bhebe, Zimbabwe

I am grateful to be a part of a group of young leaders who are doing great things for their communities. Being part of WMI Dream Big Conference and listening to all the great things the WMI Scholars and graduates are doing inspires me to do better for my community and country. It reminded me that I can do more than what I am doing right now. Thank you to WMI for allowing me to be part of these great leaders who renew my hope in humanity every time I hear and read about what they are doing in their various countries. Most of all thank you to WMI for believing in my dreams and my ability to effect change in my community and country. - Phoeby Musonda, Zambia
